

August 2019
PM plans to suspend parliament which increases chances of a no-deal Brexit

October 2019
US Tariffs, manufacturing slowdown, fear of global recession, FED cuts interest rates

Dec 2019
General Election worries. Civil unrest in Hong Kong Brexit Deal and Phase 1 of US/China Trade Deal confirmed

Feb 2020
Coronavirus crisis escalates in Europe and US

March 2020
Pandemic takes hold of world, travel bans are issued and oil price crashes

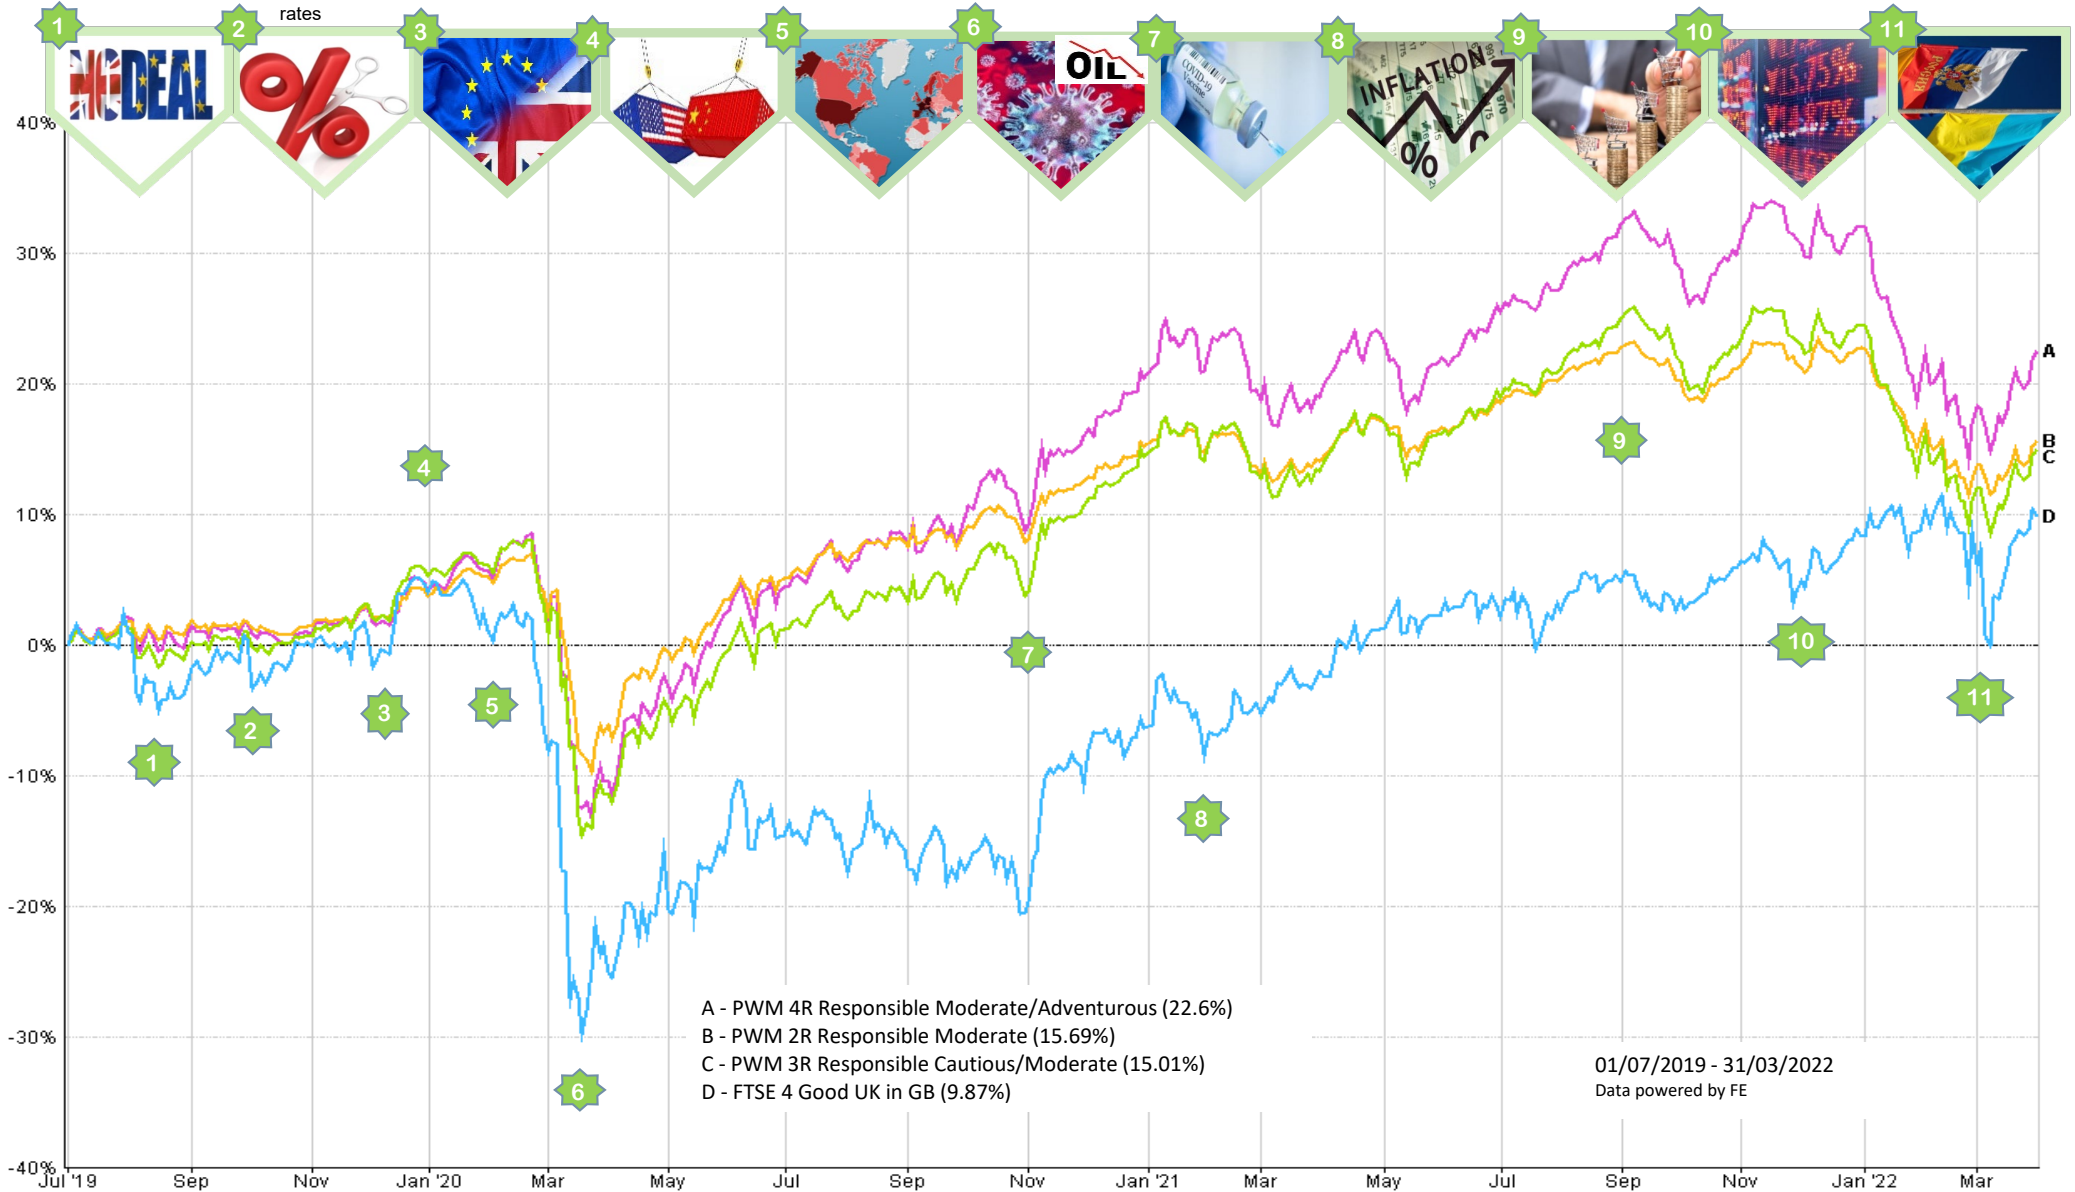

Nov 2020
Vaccine news Biden wins US election

Feb 2021
Global Markets Sell off as fears of inflation mount.

Sept 2021
China crackdowns, supply chain issues, energy prices soar.

Dec 2021
Inflation worries Interest rate rise speculation and tech sell off

2022
Russia invades Ukraine. Oil price shock. Persistent Inflation

A - PWM 4R Responsible Moderate/Adventurous (22.6%)
 B - PWM 2R Responsible Moderate (15.69%)
 C - PWM 3R Responsible Cautious/Moderate (15.01%)
 D - FTSE 4 Good UK in GB (9.87%)